You are not under any employment contract and your temporary status can be terminated at any time without notice.

Before your first day of work at Penn, you will need to do the following:

1. Provide verification of your identity and right to work in the United States—Per the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, we need to obtain documentation that establishes your identity and right to work in the United States. To meet this requirement, employers must obtain a completed I-9 form for every employee. EQUIFAX, the largest provider of employment and income verifications in the United States, provides us the ability to complete your I-9 form electronically. EQUIFAX uses the strictest of security measures, including encryption, to protect employees.

   Before you begin working at Penn, please:

   • Go to www.hr.upenn.edu/I9 and select your School/Center from the Location dropdown box, and complete Section 1 of the I-9.

   When you begin work, you must bring in the appropriate documentation in order for us to complete the I-9 process. It is helpful if you bring this documentation on your first day of work, but it must be presented no later than the third day after you begin work.

2. Provide your Social Security Card – You are required to present your Social Security Card on your first day of work so that your Social Security Number can be verified for payroll purposes. If you have misplaced your Social Security Card and need a replacement, you can apply for a replacement card at your local Social Security Administration office. You also may be able to apply for a replacement card online. See www.ssa.gov/ssnumber for additional information. The Social Security Administration office closest to the University is located at 2 Penn Center, Suite 2000B, 1500 JFK Boulevard, Philadelphia, PA 19102. For a list of other Social Security Administration offices, visit the Social Security Administration website at
If you do not have a Social Security Number, you will need to provide your passport number and country code to your Business Administrator.

3. Elect how you want to receive your pay from Penn—In support of the University’s sustainability goals, and for the convenience of employees, we have the following electronic payment options:

   - Direct Deposit to your U.S. bank account; or
   - The ADP ALINE Card, with convenience check (ALINE Card)

The ALINE Card is a debit card that gives you the flexibility to access your pay in a variety of ways at no cost to you, including unlimited over-the-counter bank teller withdrawals at any Visa member bank, unlimited in network ATM withdrawals, and unlimited cash back with point-of-sale transactions at participating retail locations (PINcode only).

For information regarding all of the terms and conditions of the ALINE Card, please visit http://www.finance.upenn.edu/comptroller/payroll/ADP_Aline_Card_Terms.pdf. A complete fee schedule is available at http://www.finance.upenn.edu/comptroller/payroll/ADP_Aline_Card_Fees.pdf. Please note that third parties may impose additional fees. The ALINE Card also comes with a convenience check, along with instructions for how to use the check.

You may also elect to receive your pay electronically via Direct Deposit, provided that you have an email address. You may elect Direct Deposit as soon as the University has processed your new hire information, and you have been provided a PennKey, which is required to authenticate your identity for access to many of the University’s electronic resources. Once you have a PennKey, you can enroll in Direct Deposit at any time, keeping in mind that Direct Deposit activations typically take between one and two weeks. If you do not elect Direct Deposit or you do not do so with sufficient time for activation prior to payment, the University will treat this as an election to receive payment via the ALINE Card. If you do not wish to receive your pay electronically, you may contact the University’s Payroll Office by email at dofpayroll@pobox.upenn.edu. The Payroll Office will explain the process for obtaining payment via paper check.

We hope that you find your work experience at Penn both rewarding and pleasant. We are happy that you have decided to join our staff

Sincerely,
